

Biography of Lyle P. Edwards, C.A.

Lyle Edwards is a prominent Calgary business and community leader who brings substantial and varied experience to Shopplex.com Corporation dba Teilhard Technologies.

Lyle is a Chartered Accountant and the current Chairman of the Calgary Municipal Land Corporation, a City of Calgary owned company formed to implement a public infrastructure program for the urban renewal of the East Village in Calgary.

As founder, developer, and majority owner of Cottonwood Golf and Country Club since 1988 and President, CEO and sole shareholder of JKL Golf Corp Inc. between 2000 and 2006, Lyle has applied his entrepreneurial and strategic abilities to both private and public companies. JKL Golf Corp Inc. was the licensee and operator of five Nevada Bob's stores in Calgary, Alberta, one in Red Deer, Alberta, and one in Toronto, Ontario. He was formerly President of Highfield Corporation Ltd., a real estate development company that had assets of $500 million.

Lyle's strong passion for sound leadership has been strengthened through extensive public and private board experience. He has also been involved as a founder, principal, operating officer and/or director in several Alberta-based public companies including: Highfield Property Investments, Western Star Oil & Gas, Roxy Petroleum, Nevada Bob's Canada and Daytona Homes.

Lyle continues to be involved in a number of real estate ventures in Canada and the United States and is active in several community organizations. Most notably, he has been the Chairman of the Calgary Flames Ambassadors since 2004. Lyle's community board experience also includes the AA Council of the Minor Hockey Association of Calgary, the Calgary Buffalo Hockey Association, the Bow Valley Hockey Association and the Calgary Colt Junior Football Association.